Eat Oysters and Learn About N.C. Coastal Federation

MANTEO – Do you love seafood? Do you want to learn more about where it comes from? Join the N.C. Coastal Federation on Jan. 13 from 6:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. at Coastal Provisions Wine Bar and Café, 1 Ocean Boulevard in Southern Shores.

Chefs Scott Foster and Daniel Lewis will prepare a custom, five-course meal centered on the Eastern oyster and paired with appropriate wines. Over dinner, learn more about the federation. Waterman Joey Daniels of Wanchese Fish Company also will discuss his involvement in the shellfish industry and the importance of local seafood and clean water.

The cost is $50 a person for federation members and $60 for non-members. Non-member pricing includes a one-year federation membership. Seating is limited and registration is required.

To register, call 252-473-1607, or visit www.nccoast.org.
