

❖ Oyster stock status and population measures

Mike Marshall & Brian Conrad- N.C. Division of Marine Fisheries

The presentation will provide an overview of historic oyster population information, stock status, and how the stock is assessed. The Division's shellfish and habitat mapping program will also be discussed and progress made to date will be described.