

❖ Habitat enhancement projects: the road to fruition

Craig Hardy- N.C. Division of Marine Fisheries

This presentation will focus on the process involved in shellfish habitat restoration projects. Steps from funding, purpose, target species, species requirements, design, site selection, permitting, and construction in will be discussed. Incorporating relevant research into the project process will also be described.